ASK COMMISSION TO ADMINISTER NEW LIQUOR ACT

This is Request Made By United Farmers of Alberta

DIRECTORS CHOSEN NEARLY ALL NEW

Dr. Magill of Grain Commission Addresses the Convention

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire.)
CALGARY, Jan. 20—Resolutions asking for increased facilities in forming consolidated schools and requesting the government to appoint a commission to administer the liquor act were made by the United Farmers of Alberta at this afternoon's session of their convention.

The election of vice-presidents resulted in the selection of W. D. Trego of Gleichen for first vice-president; S. S. Dunham of Lethbridge for second vice-president; Rice Shepard of South Edmonton as third vice-president, and P. S. Austin of Ranfurly as fourth vice-president.

New Directors Chosen.

Almost an entirely new directorate was chosen. The following, by acclamation of the following, the constituency represented preceding the names: Calgary, A. A. Hall of Crossfield; Bow River, J. E. Blow of Cralgmyle; Battle River, J. W. Wood of Wainwright; Edmonton, A. Rafn of Bon Accord; Strathcona, P. Baker of Ponoka; Victoria, J. A. Sparrow of Sedgewick; Red Deer, D. Buckingham, of Stettler; Macleod, J. D. Sloane of Cowley; Medicine Hat, E. E. Sparkes of Jenner; Lethbridge, Paul Madge of Milk River.

For the office of fourth vice-president there was a lively contest. Several votes were taken, James Weir being in the lead. A clear majority was however secured on the last vote Mr. Austin was elected. He was not present owing to illness.

Dr. Magill Speaks.

Dr. Robert Magill, chairman of the grain commission, addressed the convention after the election, of directors had been concluded. It was estimated, he said, that the farmers had produced close to $800,000,000 in their last crop. Of this the spring wheat of the three provinces had contributed for about $200,000,000. Agriculture, he said, was not merely the foundation on which the country stood; it had practically saved Canada from bankruptcy. Dr. Magill explained the troubles in shipping the grain, saying that there were today orders for more than 10,000 cars and not more than 150 cars a day were being shipped from Port William and Port Arthur. He told of the congestion at all the United States ports where an embargo was in force. So as the elevators could not be emptied, they naturally could not take care of the grain from the interior.

Dr. Miller's Address.

Dr. C. J. Miller, director of technical education, of Edmonton, addressed the meeting on that subject, and Dean Howes of the University of Alberta, explained the system of agricultural schools and the work they were doing.

A grand banquet with 400 present and addressed by numerous speakers took place tonight.

Women's Auxiliary.

The women's auxiliary of the United Farmers of Alberta this afternoon elected the following officers:

Honorary President, Miss Jean Reed, president, Mrs. Walter Parlby, Alta; vice-president, Mrs. Spencer, Edgerton; directors, Mrs. Fortune, Hindville; Mrs. Doerksen, Blumenhof; Mrs. Acme; Mrs. Maddaugh, Altorado; Mrs. J. F. Ross, Duhamel; Mrs. H. C. McDonald, Whitla.

AMID LOUD CHEERS COMPULSION BILL PASSES IN HOUSE

Tributes Paid to W. H. Long and Bonar Law, Who Piloted Measure

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire.)
LONDON, Jan. 20—The military service bill was passed through the committee of the house of commons at 11 o'clock tonight amid loud cheers.

Walter Hume Long, president of the local government board, in his speech dealing with the amendments he desired to remove the impression that under this bill the government was creating a great monster in the form of a military machine, which would grab at any man coming within its scope. There was no intention that the war office should act with undue severity, but on the contrary, it is intended to maintain the present system almost in its present form, giving it a statutory position it had hitherto not enjoyed.

Philip Snowden, the Socialist member for Blackburn, speaking as an opponent of the bill, paid a warm tribute to the generous way the bill had been piloted through the house by Andrew Bonar-Law and Mr. Long.

Mr. Bonar-Law then expressed the cordial thanks of himself and Mr. Long to all sections for the restraint shown by the opposition.

John Dillon Nationalist, added that he had never seen a bill which might really have led to a passionate heat in debate conducted through the house with greater skill or in a more conciliatory manner. He thought that Premier Asquith had never shown greater skill than in having its conduct by Mr. Long and Mr. Bonar-Law.

DENIES GERMAN AERIAL SERVICE SURPASSES BRITISH

Tennant Says British Airmen Have Given Good Account of Themselves

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire.)
LONDON, Jan. 20.—The assertion made by a German Associated press that the German aerial service recently has been perfected to such a point as to surpass that of the British is not endorsed by Harold J. Tennant, parliamentary under-secretary for war, who was questioned on this subject this afternoon in the house of commons. Mr. Tennant said the military authorities were satisfied that British airmen had given good account of themselves in recent fighting. The Germans, he thought, by adhering to the air, Mr. Tennant continued is of a defensive nature. The new Fokker monoplanes, which have been described in the press as superior to those of the allies, are well adapted for defensive work, the under-secretary explained, but are incapable of making long flights. If the Germans adopted the offensive and went behind the British lines, he thought they would meet machines quite equal in efficiency and speed to the Fokker.

OPTIMISM MUST BE REPLACED BY MORE EFFICIENCY

Hon. F. Oliver Continues Speech in House of Commons

TELLS FINE RECORD IN RECRUITING HERE

Urges Larger Pensions and Government Provision For Dependents

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire.)
OTTAWA, Jan. 20 — Hon. Frank Oliver and Hon. Arthur Meighen were the principal speakers in the commons today in the debate on the speech from the throne. Hon. Mr. Oliver's concluding his address, which was begun the previous day, emphasized the necessity of improving Canada's plan for enlisting, training and equipping the troops. He thought that more effective work might be done along these lines in the future than in the past. Mr. Oliver also thought that the government should assume the responsibility for providing for the dependents of soldiers, and not leave so much of this burden to be assumed by the people. He advocated a revision of the plan of pensions and allowances.

Hon. Mr. Meighen paid a compliment to Mr. Oliver, whom he said had given his two sons to the Empire and who had devoted a large part of his remarks to the charges of Hon. Dr. Pugsley in regard to the war department commission, and speaking on behalf of the government, refused the investigation into their operations as demanded by Dr. Pugsley. The ground he took was that the commission was responsible to the Imperial government, and not to the Dominion government.

George Kyte of Richmond, N.S., advocated a compulsory use of the power of all expenditure on the Hudson Bay railway, and declared that the parliamentary ship marked recruiting work in the Maritime provinces.

Hon. Charles Murphy questioned the prime minister regarding a despatch from London to the New York Sun, quoting Lloyd George as saying that American munitions were still coming to England, and that this was a triumph for the Morgans and not for Canada. Mr. Murphy said that this seemed a reflection on Canada.

Sir Robert Borden replied that he had no information, and he very much doubted if Lloyd George were correctly reported.

Hon. Mr. Oliver.

Hon. Frank Oliver, Edmonton, continuing his speech in the debate on the address, said that the rate of enlistment and training was not as rapidly as it should be, and he very much doubted if Lloyd George were correctly reported.

JAPANESE DRILLING.

Crowds gather nightly in Vancouver to witness the drilling of Japanese, of whom between 300 and 400 there have already enlisted for overseas service. Most of the Japanese are veterans of other wars. Canadian officers will lead their regiment, which, however, will have Japanese non-commissioned officers. One night a Japanese sergeant was drilling several companies, translating the orders into English. First he would give the order in Japanese and then quote its equivalent so that the Japs could follow instructions when they are taken in hand by English drill instructors.

NO INQUIRY UPON HAMILTON CHARGES

Premier Asquith Says Such an Investigation Impracticable Under Present Conditions

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire.)
LONDON, Jan. 20.—There will be no inquiry at present into the imputations against British commanders at Gallipoli, contained in General Ian Hamilton's despatch on the landing at Suvla Bay.

In replying in the House of Commons to John Redmond, who urged an investigation, Premier Asquith said that the government had decided it to be impracticable under present conditions, as the constitution of a tribunal and the attendance of witnesses would necessitate the withdrawal of too many officers required on the field, but that everything was being done to assure an adequate inquiry in the due course.

FOURTH DIVISION OF CANADIANS TO GO TO FRONT SOON

This Will Mean Another Movement of Canadian Troops to England Shortly

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire.)
OTTAWA, Jan. 20—Through the prime minister, Sir Robert Borden, Canada today offered a completely equipped fourth Canadian division for the front. The war office has accepted the offer, and the division will shortly take its place in the fighting line in France along with the three Canadian divisions now there. The third Canadian division which was formed last November and is now completely organized, and in the fighting line under Major General Mercer is thus followed with a fourth division which will bring the total of the Canadian troops at the front up to a little over eighty thousand.

The new fourth division will be formed from among the troops now in England. While no official figures are available it is understood that there are at least 50,000 Canadians now in training there. As soon as the fourth division is ready to go to the front, troops from Canada will move forward to England, ready to supply the gap and form the basis for a fifth, or sixth division for the front, or for reinforcements. This will mean the departure of 20,000 or 30,000 men from Canada shortly. At the present rate of enlistment, it will take a month or so to fill up the gaps left in Canada and keep the total number in training in Canada up to well over the 100,000 mark.

AMERICAN TOWNS EXPOSED TO GUNS OF HOSTILE FLEET

U.S. Coast Artillery Chief Outlines Two Emergent Situations

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20. — "Two emergent situations" as to coast defense—one at New York and another at San Francisco—where enemy battleships within long reach could bombard portions of the two cities practically unopposed by fixed land works were described to the house military committee today by Brigadier General Weaver coast artillery chief. He said the war department's plans contemplated placing 16-inch guns at those points and that forty surplus 12-inch guns, being remodeled to give them better range would be placed on the various forts. One or two such guns, he said, would be enough for any fort and more than offset long range guns afloat because of accuracy of fire of the gun ashore was eight times as great as that afloat.

Representative Green asked why it was that when officers in charge delivered American coast defenses the best in the world, public men should claim that the navy was not ready to go on any American coast city at will.

"I hesitate to criticize public men," said General Weaver. "I do not think a well-informed officer would make such a statement."

General Weaver said an enemy ship might lie off the Sandy Hook beach and lobbyse shells into Fourteenth street, New York city. To meet such a danger, he said, the war department was preparing to put the heaviest guns "into those" at New York and also at San Francisco.

General Weaver said that in New York and San Francisco and in other coast territory roads were suffi-ciently well adapted to make quick shifting of guns possible.

"We have been considering the use of mobile guns and of firing them from a car on the tracks" he said. "and General Crozier, chief of ordnance, is now working on a plan to fire a fourteen-inch gun that way."

Hilker Acquitted of Murder; Jury Deliberates Two Hours

Verdict Brought in Last Night at 10:10—Impressive Silence While Jury Awaits Return of Justice to Court Room—Plea of Prisoner Was One of Self Defence.

At 10:20 last night, the jury which had charge of the case of H. J. Hilker, of Island Lake, who was charged with murdering Robert Whitford on December 11th, 1915, brought in a verdict of not guilty. H. H. Robertson, who took the case in the absence through illness of Hon. G. McKay, K.C., was the solicitor for the defense; H. H. Parlee and E. B. Cowper, K.C., for the Crown.

The jury, following the summing up by Chief Justice Harvey, retired to consider their verdict at 8.10 p.m., and remained in the jury room two hours and ten minutes.

The accused, who is rather a big man of fair complexion and light moustache, showed signs of the strain to which he had been subjected throughout the trial. During the time the judge was giving his charge to the jury, all eyes were on him. Pending their verdict, he shifted restlessly to the deck, crossing one leg over the other, twisting his fingers into the other, wiping his forehead, and smoothing his moustache.

Hilker Awaited Anxiously.

When the jurymen returned to the courtroom, Hilker sat up in a rigid posture, eagerly scanning the face of each man, but not one of them gave any indication of what the verdict arrived at was. Contrary to general belief the acquittal did not cause the jurymen to look across at the accused man. Instead each jurryman looked straight ahead of him or down on the ground. The crowd in the court-room held its breath and the silence lasted for some three or four minutes until he judge returned to the room and took his seat on the bench. The result in the case of the man in the dock and his friends was very expressive.

Immediately upon the rendering of the verdict, the chief Justice told Hilker that he was free. He looked at the constables who were sitting on either side of him to see if it were true. They were unable to allow him to pass, and he stumbled out of his

School Board Has Long Debate On Case of Music Supervisor

Services of J. Norman Eagleson Were First Dispensed With, Then He Was Put on Half Time at $1,000, and Now He is Given $1,240 to Instruct Pupils, and Teachers When Necessary.

The appointment of a new head for the Technical school; the duties to be performed by the supervisor of music, and the salary he is to receive; and whether or not W. L. Richardson, director of technical education, who is on a year's leave of absence, should be paid up to the end of January or to the date of leaving, with a few other matters, took the School Board three and a quarter hours to dispose of at the regular meeting last night.

The position of the supervisor of music, J. Norman Eagleson, has twice before been supposedly settled, but came up again, and after a lengthy discussion, was again adjudicated on. As this is a third time a settlement has been arrived at, and as that number is supposed to contain an element of luck, the more superstitious may take the appointment and allotment of duties for granted.

Hiring and Firing Supervisor.

When the old board were dealing with recommendations just before the close of the year it was first of all decided to entirely dispense with the services of the "supervisor of music, but they later amended this decision and placed him on half time, one of the reasons for his re-appointment being that he had been a faithful employee of the staff, and could not be given a position as a grade teacher, as was the case with some of the other instructors in special subjects. He was to be given a salary of $1,000 a year, less ten per cent. At last night's meeting a report from the school management committee contained a recommendation that he be paid a salary of $1,240, less ten per cent. discount.

Trustee Gibbs took strong objection to the recommendation. He stated that the supervisor of music was given $1,000 for half time, and wanted to know what the $240 was for.

Superintendent Carpenter said it was part extra work in giving instruction to teachers at night classes.

Trustee Gibbs strenuously objected. After outlining what the board had done regarding the position of the supervisor since the matter was first brought up, he said he only voted for putting the supervisor of music on at half time because he could not be fitted in anywhere else, which was against his better judgment and had a sentimental side to it. When the arrangement was made for Mr. Eagleson to go on at half time it was recognized that the most important part of his work was the instruction he would be able to give to the teachers. It looked as if they would soon be giving the supervisor his full salary again. The appointment of the supervisor at half time was a compromise, and he claimed that if the instruction of teachers was not to be done in the time he was employed, his vote had been secured by a misunderstanding.

Supt. Carpenter stated that the supervisor would not consider the half-time offer made by the board, and had written a letter which had been discussed in committee, and that was the reason the matter had come before the board again.

It was eventually agreed to make the salary of the supervisor of music $1,240, he to give half his time to the children, and also to devote the time necessary for the instruction of teachers in addition to his work in the schools, the salary to be less 10 per cent.

"Is at's In a Name?

The trustees spent close on an hour discussing whether the new head of the technical school should be called a "principal" an "acting principal," "head of technical school," "Senior Teacher," or "Headmaster," and the last term is the one J. M. Cliddin will be known by. The difficulty in arriving at a title for the office was barely due to the fact that Mr. Richardson had been granted a year's leave of absence. It was argued that Mr. Cliddinin should be a principal and have the same standing as a high school principal, but was objected to by some members of the board on the ground that it was creating a position, and if Mr. Richardson came back they would have not only a principal, but a director as well. The argument against calling him an acting principal was that there had never been a principal, and consequently there could be no acting principal, as such a person would have to be holding a position that had been formerly filled by a principal. This was not quite clear to Trustee Douglas and one or two other trustees, but they later gave way to come to a settlement. "Senior teacher" did not sound good, and "head of the technical school" was too much to say at one time, and the title of "headmaster" was subsequently decided upon. The question of salary was not decided, but the appointment was made effective to January 1st.

A Mystery Says Douglas.

Another matter that proved contentious was a recommendation of the School Management Committee that W. L. Richardson, who left the service of the city on the 10th of this month, be paid a full month's salary.

CAPITALISTS IN EAST PURCHASE COAL PROPERTIES

St. Albert Collieries Among Those Which Change Hands

PRICE PAID FOR LOT IS THREE MILLIONS

Mines Will be Developed Vigorously Says Purchasers' Agent

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire.)
CALGARY, Jan. 20—The North American Collieries Limited, a syndicate composed of eastern capitalists, mostly from Montreal, today purchased the property and assets of the Canadian Coal and Coke company, one of the largest mining concerns in in Alberta, for $3,000,000. The payment was made with $2,000,000 of the bonds of the Canadian Coal and Coke company, which were held by the syndicate. The deal is therefore, absorption of one company by the other.

The Canadian Coal and Coke company owns extensive coal mining properties in Alberta, including the Lethbridge collieries, Lethbridge; the Bisaker Collieries, Beaver Mines; the St. Albert Collieries, St. Albert and the Pacific Pass Colliery, Lovett. It also owns the Kootenay and Alberta railway, a short line running from Fincher Creek to Beaver Mines.

Unable to Pay Interest.

The company has been unable to pay interest on the $2,000,000 in bonds which it had issued, or to proceed with its development work and several of its mines were closed down. The properties of the company were sold at auction today to satisfy a judgment in favor of the Royal Trust company, the trustees for the bondholders and were bought by the bondholders organized as a new corporation. There were no other bids. The North American Collieries paid in $300,000 in cash to pay costs outstanding.

H. V. Robertson, solicitor of Calgary, representing Senator Cloutette, who had brought suit against the Royal Trust company to have its $2,000,000 verdict against the Canadian Coal and Coke company set aside, appeared in the supreme court today and stated that a settlement had been agreed upon the suit would be discontinued.

To Develop Vigorously.

Major Lee Redmond of Calgary who acted as agent for the North American Collieries, said tonight that the new company intended to develop the collieries vigorously, to reopen the mines which had been shut down and to bring hundreds of men to Alberta. Two hundred men, said Major Redmond, were rented at once.

Conservative Leader at Annual Convention in Saskatoon Outlines His Policy

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire.)
SASKATOON, Jan. 20—At the provincial Conservative convention held here today, W. B. Willoughby, leader of the opposition, stated that if the Conservative party is returned to power the amendments to the school act which the government assented passed by the Scott government in 1912-13 will be immediately repealed and the existing law in regard to the language question will be left as it stands. He condemned the refusal of instruction in the schools of the province.

With regard to the liquor question Mr. Willoughby declared that the dispensary system was a board founding imported from the state of North Carolina, against the wishes of every temperance worker in the province. He declared that the work of the government highway commission was corrupt and was prostituted for party purposes. He condemned the Hail insurance Act as being opposed to the spirit of co-operation

NO "RIFFLE"
Just a Statement About Food.

Sometimes a good, healthy commercial traveler suffers from poorly selected food and is lucky if he learns that Grape-Nuts food will put him right.

A traveling man writes: "About a year ago my stomach got in a bad way. I had a headache most of the time and suffered misery. For several months I ran down until I lost about 10 pounds in weight and finally had to give up a good position and go home. Any food that I might use seemed to nauseate me.

"My wife, hardly knowing what to do, one day brought home a package of Grape-Nuts food and coaxed me to try it. I told her it was no use but finally to humor her I tried it. I liked it and they just struck my taste. It was the first food that I had eaten in nearly a year that did not cause any suffering.

"Well, to make a long story short, I began to improve and stuck to Grape-Nuts. I went on from 135 pounds in December to 184 pounds the following October.

"My brain is clear, blood all right and appetite too much for any man's pocket-book. In fact, I am thoroughly made over and owe it all to Grape-Nuts. I talk so much about what Grape-Nuts will do that some of the men on the road have nicknamed me 'Grape-Nuts,' but I stand ready a healthy, rosy-cheeked man—a pretty good example of what the right kind of food will do.

"You can publish this if you want to. It is a true statement without any frills."

CUPID'S COURT

CAMERON—LEE.

A pretty little wedding took place on Saturday, 8th inst., at St. George's Church, Montreal, when Miss Jessie Lee, only child of the late Captain W. Horace Lee and Mrs. Lee, was united in marriage to Mr. Allan Emmerson Cameron, of the University of Alberta, Edmonton, son of Mr. E. R. Cameron, registrar of the supreme court of Canada, and Mrs. Cameron, by the Rev. Canon Snowdon. Only a few of the immediate relatives were present. The musical part of the service was conducted by Mrs. F. M. Jenkins. The bride wore her travelling suit of navy blue with a small black velvet hat trimmed with orepreys, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. Mrs. Lee held a small reception afterwards at her home on Queen street, and Mr. and Mrs. Cameron left in the evening for their new home in Edmonton.—Medicine Hat Daily News.

Kansas Women Have No Time To Serve on Juries

Fighting For Years to Serve on Juries, and Then Backed Down

In view of the fact that Alberta women will receive a political franchise this year, the following, taken from a recent issue of the Kansas star, may be of interest:

"Topeka, Jan. 7.—Shawnee County have been fighting to get on juries. Yesterday the unexpected happened and twelve women among those selected from the jury wheel and summoned to report at the Wyandotte County courthouse for service.

"When none of the women appeared at the courthouse tide the court call-lift started an investigation.

"Mrs. A. A. Young, 842 North Thirty-second street, said she had too many household duties and could not spend any time serving on a jury. She thought the weather too severe for her to venture out.

"When the tax receipts were mailed out last fall by the county collector, a notice was attached asking the women taxpayers whether they desired to serve on a jury. All three women who claims were drawn in the panel yesterday had signified their intentions of serving if called on.

"Mrs. Lucy Pryor, 1004 North Boeke street Kansas side, talked to the bailiff on the telephone and said she didn't know whether she wanted to serve or not. She was thinking it over, it was the duty of the bailiff to tell Mrs. Pryor that the court could not wait very long and that she would be served with a summons before noon.

"Mrs. Kate Winslow, proprietor of a general store at Welborn was afraid she couldn't serve because someone had to run the store. Very sorry, but she couldn't spare the time.

"A change in the Kansas state constitution four years ago made it possible for women to serve, but none had been drawn until yesterday."

The Holland American liner Ryndam, which ran aground at Gravesend on Wednesday, has been floated.

Fighting Between Austria and Montenegro is Again Resumed

Official Announcements of Fact Are Received in Both Rome and London

Rome, Jan. 20 (Via London)—Fighting between Austria and Montenegro has been resumed, Montenegro notified Italy officially of the fact today.

Montenegro's decision was communicated to the Italian foreign office from the Montenegrin premier. The note is to the effect that King Nicholas and the Montenegrin government have rejected all terms offered by Austria and the fighting already has been resumed along the whole front.

Confirmed in London.

London, Jan. 20—Sir John Roper Farkinston, consul general in London for Montenegro today received official confirmation of the report that King Nicholas of Montenegro and his sons would remain at the head of their troops determined to fight to the last.

Queen Milena with two of her daughters, the dispatch adds, have reached Italy on their way to France.

An official French statement received here today by wireless from Paris says the Montenegrin army never capitulated and, in fact, that no formal negotiations for peace were entered upon. King Nicholas is said to be at Podgoritza, at the head of his troops.

Truiless Resolutrs.

Berlin, Jan. 20—The authorities ordered flags out following the announcement by Austria of Montenegro's capitulation. The result is that Berlin is gay with thousands of pennants, and a holiday spirit prevails.

BRITAIN NOT TO STRANGLE HUNS AT COST OF NEUTRALS

Britain is Formulating Blockade Policy That Will be Agreeable to All

London, Jan. 20.—Statements that are being made in Washington and other places as to the character of the blockade-tightening process which Great Britain has in contemplation may be regarded as speculative. The facts are that while the whole matter is under consideration the British government has not yet decided on the course of action that it will be taken. Furthermore, whatever policy is undertaken will have to receive the sanction of the allied governments concerned, for complete unity of policy in the joint efforts of Britain and France particularly, and to a certain extent, Italy and Russia, is desired in a question which is bound to arouse some measure of opposition from neutrals.

Among the possible solutions of the problem now under consideration is a scheme whereby neutral governments would provide the means to convoy through British waters for merchant vessels carrying carefully examined non-contraband by the governments concerned. This, of course, is only a partial solution, for the difficulties are foreseen.

The British government, it may be stated with authority, is not in the least disposed to give ear to the pleas of neutrals, who are urging that the interests of the neutral nations be disregarded, in order to win the war by strangling Germany. What the government is aiming at is to lessen the severity of the blockade to the limit compatible with a proper construction of sea law, as it affects both belligerents and neutrals. It is indicated that a plan whereby this may be achieved will be formulated within a week or so.

ASQUITH REFUSES CONFISCATION OF SURPLUS WEALTH

Says Considerable Steps Have Been Taken in That Direction Already

London, Jan. 20—A suggestion made in the House of Commons today by Wm. C. Anderson, labor member, that as a sequel to the military service act a measure should be introduced for the conscription of all surplus wealth and landed estates had a chilly reception.

Premier Asquith declined to give facilities for such a measure. He reminded Mr. Anderson that considerable steps in the direction indicated already had been taken by the income tax, by the supertax, and by the excess profits tax. The premier minister added:

"I need hardly say it may be necessary to impose further burdens of this character. Meanwhile, I cannot anticipate the measures which may be imposed in the future finance bill by giving the suggested facilities."

SWEDEN TAKING REPRISAL STEPS AGAINST BRITAIN

Controversy Over Detention of Mails Has Reached An Impasse.

London, Jan. 19.—The controversy between Great Britain and Sweden over the detention of the mails has reached an impasse, with each side stubbornly refusing to allow the other's mails to be expedited through the various countries.

Sweden now is holding an enormous quantity of the English post destined for Russia, while mail is being taken from every Scandinavian liner brought into Kirkwall, Scotland.

Vigorous representations are being made by diplomatic representatives, but the controversy presents so many novel features that extensive debates may be expected. Neutral diplomatic circles here are more concerned over the detention of the mails than any other fact arising from the British blockade.

Takes Definite Stand.

The foreign office here takes the ultimate stand that a parcel no matter what class of postage it bears, is no more entitled to protection than is ordinary freight. The neutral countries have not yet controverted this stand, but base their objections on interference and delays, to which actual first class postal correspondence has been subjected.

Great Britain further claims the right to detain mail in transit to other countries if the ship carrying it comes voluntarily into a British port. The directly affected mail to Holland, and the United States, backed by other neutral countries, is said, will take the stand that since it is impossible on account of the British war measure in the English Channel, for Dutch liners to avoid coming within the three-mile limits, the mails aboard them are entitled to the same immunity as those carried on ships which forcibly are brought into port from the high seas.

Russian Mails Held Up.

A novel feature of the controversy is the holding up of the British mails to Russia by Sweden, this being the first tangible reprisal measure by a neutral.

Swedish diplomats declare that since the Swedish government forbade the exports of certain articles she has a right to hold up the British parcel post and to seize such goods, which, according to the English argument, are not entitled to any more to protection than is ordinary freight.

DID ENORMOUS DAMAGE.

The Amsterdam correspondent of the Telegraaf, Leiden, says he witnessed the recent explosion of the large German ammunition depot in Lille, Northern France, describes the damage done as enormous. Not only was the munitions depot entirely destroyed, but havoc was caused in the surrounding area, by houses and factories, most of which were razed to the ground. The German Landsturm troops who were guarding the depot were killed.

SWEDEN'S "COME BACK."

A decree prohibiting the exportation of wood pulp from Sweden goes into effect on Friday, and is regarded as a measure of reprisal against Great Britain for the seizure from steamships of parcel post packages destined for Sweden.

DARKENS GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally that Nobody can tell.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.

AWAIT WORD OF SHIPS

Officials swatted anxiously at Halifax on Thursday for further word from the British steamer Pollentia, reported to be leaking and in need of assistance somewhere in the Atlantic. Some doubt was expressed as to whether the Italian steamship Giuseppi Verdi, which picked up her wireless distress call (transmitted) them here, was near enough to go to her assistance.

Alkali Makes Soap Bad For Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain unsulfied cocoanut oil, for this is pure soap and is cleansing to the very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or shampoos you can buy all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is fluffy, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

UBLIC LIBRARY ESTIMATES VERY MUCH CURTAILED

ow This Year is Less Than Half That of Four Years Ago

The library board met Wednesday afternoon to consider their estimates for the coming year's expenditures. There were present Dr. J. H. Riddell, chairman; Aldermen A. McDonald, Dr. Shaman, G. A. McKee and P. W. Abbott, with Librarian Hill.

The estimated expenditures proposed by the board this year total $31,-[illegible]8, as compared with $19,918.42 last year, or $19,220 less. In 1914 the city for the board was $59,244.42, and in 1913 $80,000, so that the amount asked of council by this board in order to carry on the work this year is less than half the tax levy for the purpose four years ago. Salaries last year amounted to $19,300, whereas this year $15,580, or $4,220 less, is the estimate. The savings in salaries have been effected by means of a reorganisement of the management of the board. Librarian Hill's salary has been reduced from $1900 to $1,500 and it has also been appointed secretary. The work of the treasurer is now being undertaken by G. A. McKee without remuneration. Five reductions in the staff have also helped to make the reduction in expenditures. The rent of $1,500 is being asked to provide new books during the year. Some members of the board wanted it brought up to $2,000, but Alderman McDonald impressed upon them the necessity of keeping the expenditure at the minimum, and the amount was allowed to stand at $1,500. $10,000 was allowed for the purchase of new books last year, only $4600 of which was expended.

PROHIBITION WOULD MAKE CANADA HAPPY

Manufacturer Says Question is Next in Importance to the War

Ottawa, Jan. 20.—At the meeting of the committee of the Dominion Alliance yesterday, to consider the debate and for dominion-wide prohibition, the following committee was named to wait upon Sir Robert Borden and ask him to submit prohibition and introduce a government measure to give effect: Messrs. F. Spence, Rev. Dr. Moore, Toronto; Rev. Mr. Grant, New Liskeard; W. E. Raney, Toronto; J. H. Wilson and J. A. Roberts, Montreal; Rev. Dr. Hazlewood, Toronto; Messrs. H. Booth, Hiram Robinson, G. H. Miller, A. W. Fraser, J. W. Hennessy, Charles Hopewell, Ottawa; Rev. O. E. Spencer, Toronto; W. J. Keen, Ottawa.

The committee will wait upon the government January 27.

Telegrams from R. M. Loggie, K.C., and from J. G. Turriff, M.P., supporting the movement, were read.

A Manufacturer's Opinion.

J. R. Booth, Ottawa, said that in his opinion, as a manufacturer, he would do a great loss to Canada if this opportunity for the enactment of prohibition were allowed to pass. He question was next in importance to the question of war. With the liquor traffic wiped out, Canada would be the happiest country in the world. Senator King, New Brunswick, emphatically supported the enactment of prohibitory legislation.

R. B. Carroll stated that his observation led him to the conclusion that the sentiment of the troops of Canada who came to him originated in liquor. Liquor interests are strongly entrenched in Canada. He would support the resolution in the house.

Mr. Rosley, M.P. for Rimouski, said he favored prohibition, but said he could hesitate to support a measure which would practically wipe out an industry which gave employment to many people. Government control of selling might meet the objection.

ALIEN PRISONERS GET OVER BORDER

Situation of International Interest Created When Men Captured in United States

CALAIS, Maine, Jan. 19—A situation of international importance developed today when four men, alleged to be German prisoners of war, who had escaped from a detention camp at Moncton, N.S., were captured on the United States shore of the border. They crossed the ice on the St. Croix river, opposite the city, from St. Stephen, New Brunswick shore. Three of the men fled to a farm near Junction, where they were about to cross the northbound train when H. C. Gillis, a United States immigration inspector, arrested them. Another was caught by the train.

Agents of the Canadian government this city said that formal proceedings would be started at once through the administration at Ottawa and the British embassy at Washington, seeking the return of the alleged captives to Canadian soil.

MORE MARKETS URGED AS CURE OF UNEMPLOYMENT

Ontario Commission, Headed by Sir John Willison, Issues Report

Toronto, Jan. 20.—The final report of the Ontario commission on unemployment, headed by Sir John Willison, has just been issued from the provincial secretary's office.

The task of the commission was to examine into the permanent causes of unemployment in Ontario and to recommend measures to mitigate or abolish it. The commission submits a number of radical proposals.

Free Labor Bureaus.

It advises the establishment of a provincial labor commission, either as a new branch or under an existing department, such permanent commission to include among its other duties the control and administration of a system of free government employment bureaus to extend throughout the province, and to be linked up eventually with federal bureaus and an imperial board.

The importance of national development as a means of securing stability of the labor conditions is emphasized.

Additional markets should, it is said, be obtained for the products of the Canadian factories, and increased business for existing transportation facilities that would only probably the enormous capital locked up in such plants.

Land Settlement.

It is recommended that the provincial government should launch a scheme of land settlement with provincial farms and agricultural training schools at selected points.

It is suggested that more practical education be provided for girls in the schools of the province, and that the proposed permanent provincial labor commission take measures to encourage the organization of workers associations among women in employment.

It is declared that excessive drinking is one of the serious personal causes of unemployment, and that much poverty, distress and vagrancy must be traced to intemperance.

Concluding, the commission finds that present methods of charitable relief are helping to create unemployment. Methods of prevention are recommended, and it is suggested that a board corresponding to the provincial board of health should have charge of the organization of preventive charity, with control of the existing charitable organizations and institutions.

No Loss of Life.

London, Jan. 20.—A British submarine has come ashore in Holland, according to an announcement made by the official press bureau today. There was no loss of life.

The press bureau said that part of the crew were taken off by a British destroyer, and others were rescued by a Dutch warship.

FLOODS IN HOLLAND.

Dispatches from Amsterdam state that the danger continues to grow in the flooded districts of the province of North Holland. Additional collapses of important dikes are reported. Near Wyndecrowne, the destruction of the railway line is threatened.

ACQUIT HILKER OF MURDER CHARGE

Afternoon Session.

The case in which H. J. Hilker is charged with the murder of Gilbert Whitford was brought on a consecution yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when the counsel on both sides made their addresses to the jury.

The closing few minutes of the trial were similar — the closing few minutes of the morning session of the trial, in the suspected murder case developed. The witness for the Crown, Mary Larson, who was produced at the evening of the alleged crime that Hilker had used a knife in a previous fight, Lawson, then called to the Hill's Post Office, stated Hilker was a very had character, and that no one's life was safe in his hands.

It was here that H. H. Robertson, counsel for the defence, put to Miss Larson the statement that he (Larson) had at one time pulled Whitford off another man, whom Whitford had thrown to the ground and was struggling with. Lawson said he (Hill) had threatened to rent his farm to Hilker and Whitford, and that, following trouble into which it was alleged that he had not three white girls.

T. A. Brick Gives Evidence.

Counsel for the defence, Mr. Robertson, Allan Brick, ex-M.P.P., an old-timer of the Peace River district, who stated that he has been in that part of the country since 1881. He bolstered out the testimony of Mary Whitford, the son of a half-breed woman, being able to swear the Indian Lawson, who had picked up with his left hand, grabbed the metal with my left hand and held it. He struck me over the left temple with the right hand. He did hold up little in his left hand. Then I drew my own knife and jabbed him with it, to try to keep him off.

"He — as me, and I — as him, red-hot stove, and putting his right arm around my neck, shove his head up to my chest and tried to throw me on the stove. Then, suddenly he jumped back and ran outside, saying, 'I get both of you for this.'

"I ran to the door and saw him go to the chopping block and reach for the axe, so I shut the door to keep him outside.

"I could not say where Mary Whitford was at this time. I had too much to think about at the time.

"I thought Whitford would try to kill me, and when he returned to the door with the axe I jumped back, shut the door and turned to where the girls were standing.

"After the first axe-blow on the door, I injected a cartridge into the barrel of the rifle. I warned Whitford after the first blow on the door that I would shoot if he came in. When he struck the second time, I told him I would shoot if he came inside. I waited for perhaps a second or two, then fired.

"The reason I did not wait until Whitford re-entered the house was because I had no confidence in the gun.

Lying in the Snow.

"After I had shot I heard no more noise, so I opened the door cautiously and peeped out. I saw the man lying as if the door was coming down. I with my gun in my hand, as I could see one leg and one arm moving, and did not know whether he was trying to trick me, as he did in the house when he pretended to be drunk.

"When I found that he had been hit, I went to the house and got Mary Ward to come and hold the electric lamps for me, while I carried him into the house. I examined him to see where he was hit, and he died while I was feeling his body. We then covered the body with a comforter from the bed and laid it on one of the floors.

"I could not go and make a report of the matter that night, as we had only an old mare and a stallion in the stable, and Whitford's horse was swinging wet and not fit to travel any more that night.

"The next day was Sunday and I went to Van Bente's, where I had a conversation on the telephone or telegraph until Monday morning. On Monday morning I had considerable difficulty in finding the police by telephone, so I telegraphed to Peace River.

Came From Iowa.

Accused then gave the stand at 10 a.m., and stated that previous to living at Island Lake he had lived at Stettler for several years. The family of whom there were seven sons, came originally from Iowa.

From Stettler, Hilker went to Sturgeon River, six years ago. He moved to Island Lake with his brother, Fred, in August, 1913, to get away from the homesteaders in the Burnt River District, as his ranching operations were interfered with by the fact that the homesteaders did not fence their lands, and Hilker's horses, of which he had about 35, strayed on to their farms. At Island Lake he built a log shack with frame addition, which he intended to turn into a store to cater with the travellers and settlers.

Hilker stated that he had known Whitford for about four years. He met Mary Ward about two years ago at a picnic. The courtship began about the end of March or early in April, the girl is now 14 years of age. He took her to a dance at that time. They became engaged about the end of October, immediately on the girl's return from her visit to Stettler. Hilker was going to Stettler.

Had Two Suitors.

Previous to the day of the fatal quarrel there had been no words between the two. Mary Ward told Hilker of Whitford's wish to marry her on the day that she and Hilker went to Hilker's shack.

Hilker stated that he needed the girl at the store, which he was about to open, for the benefit of the travelling public, which he could speak Cree and he could not. He wanted to marry her about Christmas time, and the delay was caused by the fact that the girl was Catholic and Hilker was Protestant. He thought that the priest would not marry them. For some time the two brothers had the girl lived together in the shack.

ONTARIO WAR TAXES.

The Ontario provincial treasurer's department has received $1,555,000 from the war tax imposed last session, and there is still $400,000 to come.

PROPERTY OWNERS SCHEME NOT LIKELY TO PASS THIS YEAR

Not Likely to Be Ready for Consideration by Legislature as Charter Amendment

The possibility of carrying out at present the recommendation of the Edmonton Owners' Association, to put the public utilities under a board of directors, seems to be coming less each day. In order that the city's utilities may be placed under a new form of management a charter amendment permitting of the change must be obtained. As the provincial legislature is expected to meet very shortly the time for consideration and discussion of the change is limited to a very few weeks, and the fact that the council has decided at its meeting yesterday referred it to a committee to report back to them will cause a delay of about two weeks at least, there being no regular meeting of the council until February 4.

While the council of the Board of Trade are aware that the committee of the Property Owners Association who have been dealing with the matter have not given it much time, although, they themselves have not yet had time to do so, and less that there is far too much involved to give a snap decision in favor of the recommendation, they think, the board of the proposition.

There is the possibility, and perhaps probability that even if the board agree with the general principle of putting the utilities under a board of directors there may be certain of the minor details of the association that they do not favor. To a course would cause the council to hesitate prior to the association which will take time.

Assuming that it will be agreed to by the Property Owners' Association and the council at their meeting of February 4th it will then have to come before council, which would doubtless refer the proposal to a committee. If it were reported back to council a week later it would be Friday, that meeting it does not seem possible to get a charter bill in the earliest until the end of February.

SCHOOL BOARD HAS LONG DEBATE ON SUPERVISOR

Trustee Ramsay raised the objection. He stated that they had cut the salaries of the teachers everywhere throughout the city and that they should pay the director of education for work he had not done.

Trustee Cameron said he favored paying the full month's salary, as an appreciation of the work done director of technical education, and much discussion ensued, chiefly between him and Mr. Reid, who seemed to him to be some mystery about this whole matter that he did not understand. Why was so much time spent discussing such an apparently trivial matter he could not fathom was why, when Mr. Richardson sent in his resignation he was given a year's leave of absence, instead. They were absolutely unjustified in paying a full month's salary for any part of a month's work, and the only reason he could see for that was to make good fellows of themselves.

It was pointed out by Mr. Rea that Mr. Richardson was actually in the employ of the board up to the 15th of the month, and the report of the committee was amended to pay him for the time he worked.

Fees For Night Classes $2.

A fee of $2 per term or ten weeks was agreed upon for students attending the night classes at the technical school.

Last Year's Taxes.

The special committee of the board appointed to confer with the city commissioners and bank manager in connection with the board's requirements until the end of the year, and other matters in connection with the section from the city of the taxes levied by the board by virtue of the 1915 school assessment, reported that to date the board had not received from the city any money on account of the levy of the 1915 assessment, except, indirectly, the sum of $173,736 derived by the government at the Imperial Bank, of Canada one of the city's notes given in settlement of the first instalment of taxes due. The other monies necessary to carry on the board's operations during the current year, have been partially obtained through loans secured from the Imperial Bank of Canada, with which sundry notes given by the city from time to time in temporary settlement of its instalments, have been placed as collateral, and partially secured through borrowing and using capital monies in the possession of the board, and having exceeded its power in borrowing and using capital monies, arrangements were being made with the Imperial Bank, jointly with the city, to take and take up the outstanding notes as soon as possible, either by means of treasury bills or monies derived from the enforcement of tax collections. The report of the committee was referred to in finance committee.

Committee Reports.

The following reports of the school management committee were adopted:

That Mr. Humphreys, acting principal of Queens avenue school, be placed on the schedule, vice Mr. Ross, the schedule, viz., $1,600, less 15 per cent.

That A. H. Meneely, assistant at the Technical school, be paid the same salary as in 1913, and that he be paid for the days he attended the convention in Calgary.

That the matter of the preparation of a schedule of salaries for technical and manual training teachers and technical school be held on the table for the present.

That the appointment of Miss Jean R. Fairley to the teaching staff be made permanent.

That the matter of providing extra help for janitors during the cold weather be left to the chairman of the school management committee and the chairman of the board to deal with.

That the use of the Victoria High school gymnasium be granted to the Public School basketball club.

The following report of the building and grounds committee were adopted:

That the completion of the present contract for the kitchen addition will be effected in a few weeks, and the appointment of a permanent caretaker will be scheduled, subject to the school management committee.

That J. A. Lockerbie, Limited, be re-in charge of the contract for plumbing, heating and ventilation of the Weremiuch school building, be required to put up a $2,000 guarantee bond for one year.

Communications were received from two teachers calling attention to the fact that increases in their salary was undoubtedly large. Referred to the school management committee.

Indefinite leave of absence was granted to David A. Gray, who is on a commission in the 137th Battalion.

Health Officer's Report.

The report of the medical officer, Dr. Tory, for the month of November and December, showed that 393 inspections had been made at Forest avenue, Strathcona, Queen Mary, Ada, Bonnie Doon, Alberta, Parkdale and Victoria schools. Of these 29, or 7.09 per cent, were found defective in some respect exclusive of defective teeth. The percentage of defective teeth in the inspections was 15.06. The epidemic of grippe considerably interfered with the work, as there were many absentees. During the same period the contagious disease is as follows: Measles, 6 cases, 4 with no school connection and 4 at the Edmonton Children ion, 24 cases, 16 with no school connection. Mumps, 4. Varicella 5. Scarlet Rosalex. Taylor 8. Mumps, 4 cases, and measles 2 cases with no school connection. Scarlet fever, 1 case. There were 21 cases of tuberculosis, 12 of the Hanley, Westmount 5, King Edward, 1, Alex. Taylor 1, and 10 either not of school age, or with no school connection.

the total population than any other country in the belligerent nations, and had not been behind any other section of the community. Among the native born from the city of Edmonton, 200 families had sent three members each, 100 families had sent two each and one hundred families had sent at least one.

Pensions Inadequate.

Mr. Oliver declared that the pension system was inadequate and a hindrance to recruiting. Malmed men had been discharged at Quebec, their pay being cut off without their being put on the pension list, so that for a time at least they were a charge on their relatives or on the community. A number of the men who returned were suffering a great or less degree of insanity as the result of shock. This was a condition that should be stable, and the men should certainly not be sent to the ordinary insane asylums, but should be treated in some other way. Many married men had left home, and a great many more were to go in the additional 250,000 men now being called. Great care was trying to get more of the men who have not married and families dependent on them, said Mr. Oliver, the government wanted to see that better provision is made for the dependents of married men who go to the front. The scale of separation allowances and assigned pay were from the first admittedly insufficient. The plan was to supplement them from the Patriotic Fund. This was a bad system.

Should Provide.

The country should undertake the whole responsibility of supporting the dependents of married men, and it should make adequate provision for them. The general idea was that men would feel much more satisfied in leaving their dependents if they knew the government undertook their entire support. Moreover the allowances from the Patriotic Fund had lately been decreased. This was a breach of faith with men who had gone under the previous conditions.

Speaking of the desirability of making Canadian soldiers efficient, both as a training and defensive force, Mr. Oliver explained that the present spirit of optimism must be replaced by more efficiency and energy. The change took place in April but the prime mistake was that in Canada the machine guns ordered at the beginning of the war were just then beginning to be delivered, and General Hughes stated that they were about to be reviewed. The people would like to know if they had yet been delivered and if the men in the trenches were now properly equipped.

Sixty Rifles For 8,000 Men.

During last month there were 8,000 men in training at Calgary and only sixty rifles to use for target practice. They had to borrow the rifles from the Mounted Rifles. Thus was the time when effective training was being given. Edmonton this winter had not received any rifle practice, although a good range was available. The men had only one machine gun. Dummy guns were used, but they were quite useless for training purposes. He did not think that the government was doing its duty in training and equipping soldiers. This was nothing less than a crime against the soldiers of the Empire.

Mr. Oliver expressed the conviction that if men were immediately equipped and trained on enlistment, plenty of men would be secured. He was doubtful, however, if the half million required could be obtained under existing circumstances. He suggested that more use could be made for purchasing men in Canada, and that men who had had experience at the front should be taken home to assist in the work of training and forwarding.

Hon. Mr. Meighen.

Hon. Arthur Meighen, in opening, complimented the member for Edmonton on the one of the speech. It was right, he said, that the tone of parliamentary discussion should be modified at the present time. He was glad to see Mr. Oliver range himself with the government. He believed Mr. Oliver had stated that to be unprepared was to invite an attack. He could not help but recall that this feeling did not animate him eighteen months ago. Meighen referred to the fact that Mr. Oliver had given two sons to the service of the country.

Mr. Meighen admitted that there were regiments in Canada, he was sorry that they had been unduly delayed, but there was much greater complaint on this score in England, where almost millions had been in training for an indefinite period before going to the front. The reasons behind this delay were good and unavoidable.

Referring to Mr. Oliver's criticism of inadequate pensions, Mr. Meighen said that his information was that the Canadian scale was the largest and most generous of the twelve belligerent nations.

The Solicitor-General next took up the complaint in regard to his ocean rates. The Canadian government had no authority to commandeer vessels. The people of the United States were labouring under the same disadvantage. The rates were fully fixed by the desire of the shippers to get the boats.

Comm. No Inquiry.

In reply to the allegations of Hon. Mr. Pugsley in regard to the operations of the shell committee, Mr. Meighen stated that there would not be a parliamentary inquiry into the work of the committee, as suggested by the ex-minister of public works. He said that if charges were made against any member of the government or employee of the government an inquiry would be instituted, but that nothing was likely to be done in regard to the assertions of Mr. Pugsley. The chief reason given by Mr. Meighen continuing an inquiry was that the shell committee was responsible not to parliament, only to the imperial government, and conducted its business only with that government. He also stated that in 1903 the Laurier government had declined to conduct an inquiry into purchases made in Canada in connection with the South African war.

SHELL SHORTAGE IS YET A QUESTION TO BE REMEDIED

Long Periods of Quiescence Between Attacks Due to Lack of Shells

London, Jan. 20.—The Times' military correspondent, in an article on the allies' military campaign, says the concentration of military power on the western front and the abandonment of further secondary operations in distant theatres.

"The main forces of our and enemy," says the writer, "are still the western front. This is the centre of gravity of the German military power. We should strike persistently at the centre or gravity if we are to achieve victory.

The writer maintains that the allied forces have not even yet remedied the shortage in the shell supply and says:

"We have not yet delivered a serious attack without any concern as to our supply of shells.

Conviction Quashed.

Rex vs. Wong Tun.

This is an appeal against a conviction made the 24th day of November, 1915, whereby Magistrate Primrose found the defendant Wong Tun guilty of having in his possession, and ordered him to pay $250 and costs or in default imprisonment for six months. This appeal was heard before His Honor Judge Scott yesterday afternoon, and when the case was called there was no one there to represent the Crown. E. E. Winkler, who appeared for the defendant, argued the case and his Honor Judge Crawford allowed the appeal with costs.

DAVE GREGG HAS SIGNED CONTRACT

Former Edmonton Twirler Will Pitch For Portland in Coast League

PORTLAND, Jan. 20—Dave Gregg's return to the Portland Coast Club and the closing of the final chapter in the Bill Rogers deal were the outstanding features of another listless day in local baseball circles.

Gregg—a younger brother of the once-famous Yean of the Cleveland and Boston clubs—dropped into town on train from Charleston, Idaho, to Chehalis, and immediately hunted up Walter McCreadie.

It appears that David and the big baseball Goliath have had some correspondence over Gregg's impending "comeback," so the two did not waste ammunition.

Dave was shooed upstairs to Judge McCredie's private sanctum, and the eminent jurist had his name to a contract in short order.

Gregg has had quite an eventful career during the past five years. His mam shuttlecock sums it up briefly.

Dave broke in with Portland's Northwestern team in 1911, and the next season, with the Portland Coast Club, he won five out of 12 games. He had worlds of speed, but was shy on control. McCredie stored memories of the way his brother used to stand 'em on their heads, however, and he held Dave all year, using him principally for relief work.

Eventually, in 1913,—the astute old Connie Mack heard of the fame of this young giant, and offered Portland $5,500 in cold coin for his services. The McCredies, being hooked up with Cleveland, were first obliged to offer Dave to Cleveland, and he was snapped up probably on Connie Mack's judgment.

Dave Lacked Control.

Frankly speaking, Dave's lack of accuracy mitigated against him back there. It wasn't long before he was sent to Toledo, of the American Association, and then down the ladder to Spokane of the Northwestern League, from whence his pilgrimages had begun.

Gregg strained his side at Spokane, was sent to the dinky Western Canada League, and last year showed up in the bushes. So the tall right-hander has just about dislodged the keys in every summit from the bush to B to AA to major to AA to B to D and back to bush again.

Wait, Has Confidence.

"Gregg has the physique and the speed," said Walter McCredie, explaining his signing of his former satellite. "He pitched in the bush up in Idaho last year, and claims to have mastered control. Dave pitched and won five games in one week last July. If Gregg can get the ball somewhere near the plate he will be a great pitcher. I am willing to gamble a few beefsteaks of his statement."

REGINA BONSPIEL.

REGINA, Jan. 20 — With three of the events down to the jewelry class and the majority of the others advanced far more than was anticipated, the 13th annual Saskatchewan bonspiel is gradually coming to a close. All of the eleven events will be in competition today, and it is fully expected that all events will be closed out by Saturday.

A great fight is in progress for the Grand aggregate where the following lead: Adams, Grady, Cunningham and Smith, all Regina rinks. Adams tops the list with ten wins and one loss. Grady and Cunningham tie with ten wins, Smith has eight wins.

G. CHIP REVERSES TABLES ON M'COY

NEW YORK, Jan. 20—George Chip, of Newcastle, Pa., former middleweight champion, outfought Al McCoy, of Brooklyn, present holder of the title, in a ten-round bout in Brooklyn tonight. Chip was the aggressor throughout, and inflicted severe punishment upon the man who took his laurels from him in April, 1914. He knocked McCoy down for the count of seven in the third round, but was unable to land a decisive blow. Chip weighed in at 157¾ and McCoy was fast two pounds heavier.

NORTHERN LEAGUE.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 20 — The Northern League will be composed of six teams during the coming season. This was decided at a meeting of the magnates of the Burmeister Circuit at the Dyckman Hotel this afternoon. The six teams will be, Duluth, Superior, Fargo, Virginia, Winnipeg and Fort William. The league season will open the first week in May, and will call for 120 games.

ALL DRESSED UP AND NO PLACE TO GO

The future activities of Harry Sinclair, Federal League magnate and millionaire oil man, and James Gilmore, president of the league, is the cause of much speculation. Just what position these two men, who successfully fought the two other baseball organizations can at present be no thing more than a mere guess.

Sinclair, who owned the Newark Federals, holds the contracts of many of the league's brightest stars, and the organized magnates will have to go to him for releases on these players.

In organizing the Federal League and securing the capital to keep it going, James Gilmore showed a rare skill at finance. Undoubtedly he would be a valuable addition to the game in the future, but it is doubtful if he will continue his activities in the grand old game.

Allan Cup Holders Defeated Soldier All Stars By 8 to 3 Score

WINNIPEG, Jan 20—The Monarchs jumped out in front in the race for the A. series in the Patriotic Hockey League here tonight by disposing of the All-Star Soldiers 8 to 3 in a game filled with thrills. A strong attack in the second half was responsible for the victory of the Allan cuppers, they coming from behind and notching goal after goal. The sensational manipulation of the puck by Dick Irvin, the Monarch centre, he scoring several goals, was easily the feature of the play. Stan Jackson played a sensational game in goal for the losers. The half-time score was 3 to 2 for the soldiers. The play was fast and clean throughout.

JOE WRIGHT NOW AT PENNSYLVANIA

Pennsy's New Rowing Coach Makes Good Impression at Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, Penna., Jan. 20.—Joe Wright, Pennsylvania's new rowing coach, appeared in the rowing room for the first time a few days ago. The Toronto coach made a very favorable impression on all the crew men who turned out to greet him. He announced immediately after meeting the men that Varsity practice will start next week.

When asked by one of last year's Varsity men what sort of stroke he intended to teach, he said: "I intend to stick to the stroke that I have used and taught in Canada. It is neither the English nor the American stroke, but rather a compromise between the two. I call it the Neil stroke.

"I also expect to use the thole pin rigging that Mr. Nickalls established here two years ago."

Mr. Wright, formerly coach of the Argonauts of Toronto, is the only college crew coach in America today who is giving his services gratis. He is undecided as to whether or not he wishes to lose his amateur standing by turnin his coaching into a profession.

For this reason he has taken a one-year contract with the Quakers, and will receive only his actual living expenses during that time. At the end of the year, if he decides to stick to the work a three-year contract will be offered to him

HUDSON WINS AT DULUTH BONSPIEL

Canadian Stopped Brewer's Rush to Grand Aggregate—Has Reached One Final

DULUTH, Minn., Jan. 20.—Today to G. M. Hudson and his little band of Canadian curlers belongs the individual honors of the day's curling in the Northwestern bonspiel now in progress at the Duluth curling club. They defeated the brewer-Wayte rink, Duluth, for the first time in the spiel. The Kenora rock men stopped the Duluthians' winning streak of ten straight in the race for the Grand Aggregate in a beautifully played game. Hudson had the last rock. Whyte had two "biters" and the Canadians perfect draw to the button settled the battle. A huge gallery watched the contest.

Hudson, who is paired with Dr. McGregor, of Butte, Mont., in the Patrick-Duluth event, worked into the finals of that event this afternoon, the partnership winning hands down over a Hibbing and Superior combination.

Tonight Hudson is in the third round of the St. Paul Jobbers' event and is pitted against the strong Lahatt combination in the International tomorrow. Labatt is showing tremendous strength and if the Kenora four win from the Minneapolis skip their chances will be good to at least get into the finals.

In the Grand Aggregate the official standing in the three open events is Brewer-Whyte, Duluth, ten won, one lost; G. B. Reedal, Phillips, Wis., 8 won and 1 lost; G. K. Labatt, Minneapolis, eight won, one lost; G. K. Labatt, Minneapolis, six won and one lost.

In the Minneapolis Curling club event Brewer, Duluth, is in the finals and in the Duluth Curling club event Labatt, of Minneapolis, is in the finals.

Killam and Sedgewick Fans Do Not Speak as They Pass on Street

Fan From Killam Alleges Sedgewick Hockey Club Neglected Formality of Returning Admission Fees After Tuesday's Fiasco. 63rd Battalion and Pennants Meet in Important Game Tonight. Calgary Cubs After A. B. Cook—Other Hockey Notes.

When the Killam and Sedgewick hockey teams staged the fiasco on Tuesday night they gave hockey a black eye in the Wetaskiwin branch of the neighborhood. Primarily the Killam team was to blame for insisting upon playing two ineligible men, but from the tone of the following letter the Sedgewick Hockey Club also did its little bit to put hockey on the bummer. The letter is signed by a well-known citizen of Killam, and is as follows:

"A league game of hockey between Killam and Sedgewick, to be played at Sedgewick on the 18th, had been widely advertised, and as entertainments are rare in our rural communities, opportunity for an outing was taken on this occasion by many farmers and their families. The weather was fine, and a large number paid their way into the rink. The opposing teams came on the ice, did a little skating, then went away. We were then told there was no game.

"On going to the wicket we naturally expected a refund, but the wicket was closed and the cashier had disappeared.

"We know nothing at all about the disputed question between the teams not being hockey experts, but we do know that those in charge of the Sedgewick hockey business let us through the gates after taking our money, and then turned us out of the same place with neither money nor entertainment.

"We understand that Dr. Craig, of Sedgewick, is managing the Sedgewick outfit. An explanation is asked of Dr. Craig and another man, seemingly a bank official, and they had none to offer, but both appeared to explain Sedgewick in their acting.

"I have imposed on your space and kindness too much, but wished to they will be called to account by the when games are advertised in future, similar treatment of visitors may be avoided. Occasions of dispute between associations of the game will occur, but it is not pleasant for people to drive as far as 25 miles to see a game, and not no other entertainment than that of being relieved of their money in this slick way.

Before publishing this letter, the bulletin informed President Leroy Chown, of the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association, regarding the complaints, and the chief executive of provincial hockey promises to have the matter thoroughly investigated. If, as alleged, the Sedgewick Hockey Club refused to refund the gate admissions, then will be called to account by the A.A.H.A. and severely dealt with. Because the Killam Hockey Club refused to pay a claim the Sedgewick club much expense, is no reason why the spectators should be deprived of such entertainment and entrance fee. The constitution of the A.A.H.A. provides for such occasions. Gate money shall be refunded, and the defaulting club is fined $25, and also must pay all of the expenses incurred by the opposing club. Hockey, like almost every other sport, depends entirely for its existence upon the support of the public, and it will not take many more instances like that of Tuesday night to reduce the gate receipts to a minimum.

The residence clause, the corner stone around which nearly all hockey battles are waged, is the subject of a discussion in Calgary right now. A. H. Cook, one of the famous Taber clubs of two or three years ago, and among the best defence men in the province, anxious to play for the Calgary Cubs. The Vics, prospective intermediate champions of Calgary, view the acquisition of Cook, McHugh, McQuarrie and other seniors by the Cubs, with decided unrest, and have visions of their championship aspirations vanishing into thin air. A. H. has been in the employ of a firm of Calgary surveyors since last March, but after a summer in the field returned to Calgary a little late to qualify under the residence clause. Letters have been submitted to President Chown, stating that Cook is a bona fide citizen of Calgary, making his headquarters in that city and should be declared eligible for intermediate league hockey. Mr. Chown has declared himself in favor of allowing Cook to register with the Cubs and if, either L. A. Lambert of Jimmy Mann, he remaining members of the A.A.H.A. sub-committee concur, A. H. will line-up with the Cubs.

A crucial game in the local A.A.H.A. district is billed for the South Side rink tonight at 8 p.m., when the 63rd Battalion team and Pennant clash. A defeat for either team would put them out of the running for the division championship, while a win for the Pennants gives them an outside chance of tying the Borden Bearcats. Both teams will be at full strength, as they realize the importance of tonight's contest.

The Borden Bearcats will hold a practice at the South Side rink tonight from 6.30 to 7.30, when every member of the squad is requested to be present. Just as soon as Trimble and Letourneau round into shape they will more than fill the vacancies caused through the desertion of Grubb and Davidson.

Another entry has been received in the Edmonton junior division of the A.A.H.A. from the Mount Royal Association forwarded fees for a junior team, making a total of three teams in the local junior ranks. A meeting will be held early next week for the purpose of drawing up a schedule.

KING OF GREECE THINKS WAR WILL RESULT IN DRAW

Bitterly Resents "High-Handedness of Allies" Toward His Country.

Athens, via Paris, Jan. 18—King Constantine today sent for the Associated Press correspondent in order to express through the newspapers of the United States, as he said, his profound indignation at what he termed "the unheard of high-handedness of the recent action of the allies toward Greece."

The King was greatly moved as he recited, one after the other, the long list of what he called "the allies' encroachment on the sovereignty of Greece, culminating in the occupation of Corfu, and the blowing up of the bridge at Demir Hisar."

"Does your majesty believe that Germany can be victorious?" asked the correspondent.

"That depends," replied the King, "on what is meant by victorious. If you mean take London, Paris, and Petrograd, probably not. But I believe the Teutons can defend themselves where they are for a very long time. If economic exhaustion does not force Germany to sue for peace, I believe it will be very difficult for her impossible, to conquer her in a military way.

"Then what does your majesty think will be the outcome of the war?" The King replied: "A draw—Don't you?"

$4 Saved Two Fingers

The fingers were those of Mr. J. W. Besnard, of 539 Craig St. E., Montreal. He says, —"A falling beam badly smashed my hand. Two fingers were so severely crushed that the doctors said they would have to be amputated. Naturally I didn't want this, so decided to try Zam-Buk first. I applied Zam-Buk daily, and by the time I had used $4 worth, the injury was completely healed. My fingers were saved!"

"Just another illustration of the healing power of Zam-Buk. Accidents will happen. It may be your turn next. Better get a box and keep it handy. Accidents are less frequent than skin diseases, and remember this—

Zam-Buk is just as good for eczema, ulcers, skin diseases, and piles, as for cuts, burns, bruises.

All druggists and stores 50c. box or 3 for $1.25. Refuse substitutes.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 1916.

Sir Robert Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier are agreed that there should be no conscription in Canada. Voluntary enlistment must therefore be relied upon to bring out the man whom men the Government says Canada ought to have under arms by next fall.

That is a large contract, but it is not larger than Canada should undertake, provided we can clothe, train, and equip the men, and send them to the front within some reasonable time after they have enlisted. If this large order is to be filled it would seem to be the part of wise public policy, as well as of justice to our soldiers, to remove the legal and administrative barriers which are at present keeping men out of the ranks, and to put before the public the whole scheme of treatment accorded the soldier and his family in a way that will be an assurance, and not a cause of distrust, to the prospective recruit.

The present Canadian pension scale is a standing barrier to enlistment; practically it limits enlistment to men who care nothing for the future, and to men of hardly faith who persist in believing that, law or no law, their countrymen will not see them and their families suffer because of sacrifice in the country's cause. The fact that the man who enlists must leave his family dependant upon a fund raised by voluntary contribution and dispensed "only to those who need it" is by no means an inducement to men of independent character who feel that a soldier is worthy of his hire and should not be treated as a recipient of charity.

The spectacle of thousands of men who have been enlisted for months still marching about the streets with no prospect of getting to the front is by no means an alluring one for men who are prepared to sacrifice position or business for their country's sake but who do not see the wisdom or advantage of sacrificing it for the irksome privilege of playing soldier in Canada. The fact that our men in training are not being taught the first and most essential thing a soldier needs to know—how to shoot—is another warning to men of serious intent that enlistment does not seem to lead to the opportunity to strike an effective blow for the country as directly as it should.

Not less dissuading is the testimony of a committee of Parliament, of a Royal Commission, and of the Minister of Militia, that for a year and a half an army of thieves have been engaged in the plunder of the war fund "from one ocean to the other." If there were any sign of a resolute attempt to bring these criminals to justice their operations would not have so deadly an effect upon the whole enlistment business, but when the royal commission has quit without going beyond the ground covered by the Parliamentary committee a year ago save in two instances—in each of which an astounding piece of rascality came to light; and when no move is being made to bring those proven and reproven guilty into the courts for punishment, there is mighty little encouragement to men to drop all they have in the world, leave their families and don the uniform.

If the voluntary system is to measure up to requirements Parliament should see to it that in saying that the whole official attitude toward the soldier and his family is changed; that he is no longer treated as without consideration due, and his wife and children as encumbrances whom the country refused to take care of. If the prospective recruit is given to understand that he will be treated as a man, the half million men can be got. Otherwise it is doubtful. And if patriotism is strong enough to impel men into the ranks in face of this official dissuasion, that is all the more reason why fair and ample justice should be done them and their families. We have no right to ask a man to fight for us unless we recognize his services in the manner of our treatment of him and his family.

Mr. Lavergne seems to consider it some commendation for Mr. Bourassa and himself that they refused to join the Borden Government.

Respectfully submitted that if a news suppression bureau is a necessary part of our military equipment it ought to suppress bad news that is not true just as readily as good news that is true.

The late Canadian shell committee would have been a wonderfully efficient and efficient institution if it had developed as much talent for getting shells made at reasonable prices as it developed for convincing people that its operations need looking into.

The chairman of the council committee reports that the street railway trouble has been settled on the basis that the union is to let the superintendent run the concern.

The man who loots the war fund in Canada deserves the punishment that is due to looters in Belgium or France.

As it pays well and is not dangerous, Mexican bandits may be supposed to be pursuing a policy of "watchful waiting" for more Americans to shoot and plunder.

Sir Robert Borden's defense of the wheat seizure is that the opposition have not yet shown that there was anything morally indefensible in it. The lack of proof of dishonest motive is hardly proof of wisdom.

Ocean rate on wheat has gone up again. Consternation among Western wheat-growers will not be noticeable, owing to the fact that as wheat is not crossing the ocean it makes no practical difference what the theoretical rate may be.

Notwithstanding Berlin having declared that it has abandoned piracy and R. B. Bennett having said the pirates have been got under control, there does seem to be a notably heavy mortality among Allied and neutral freight ships these days.

The Calgary Herald says it would like to see free wheat given a trial, but it has a dark doubt that our city council would be present constituted with not vote that way. Seeing that the House of Commons was "as at present constituted" by pledges to prevent free wheat, the Herald's doubt seems to be as reasonable as its own change of heart.

If the hydro-electric agreement is not a franchise within the statutory definition of the term, that is because the statutory definition was accidentally or purposely made narrower than it ought to have been. No sane man can suppose it to have been the purpose of the Legislature of the Province that the city council should have power to tie up the city for thirty years in an agreement affecting the supply of any essential commodity without first having obtained the sanction of the people who have to stand the consequences.

It is offered in excuse that to prosecute Messrs. Bourassa and Lavergne as traitors would be to make "martyrs" of them. If so the fault lies with the man who slaughtered the Conservative party in Quebec to make room for their nominees; thus elevating them from the status of politico outlaws to that of political leaders of a cabinet and Parliamentary following large enough to influence the policy of the country and threaten the existence of the Government, and giving them a vantage point from which to proclaim their doctrines with the influence and authority of prestige.

Assuming that Mr. Bourassa and Mr. Lavergne are not in German pay, the difference between them and the gentlemen who have been indicted by the New York grand jury is that Messrs. Bourassa and Lavergne serve Kultur from their country, while the others did it for money. The question as to whether treason for treason's sake is less criminal than treason for money's sake does not arise for solution. The practical and obvious fact is that treason, whether for the sake of money or for its own sake, ought to be stopped by punishment. An equally obvious fact is that in the neutral United States a serious attempt is being made to prove that the agents of Kultur who have conspired against that country's neutrality in violation of its laws, while in belligerent Canada Mr. Bourassa and Mr. Lavergne are allowed to libel Great Britain, discourage enlistment, misrepresent history and spout sedition without interference.

CIVIC RELIEF GRANTS.

Editor Bulletin:

Sir,—Permit me to thank you for the space and attention given by you in your persistent crusade against waste of public funds. Your fight is the interest of truer economy, and less senseless extravagance, has certainly kept you busy in bringing abusive facts to light. The fact you mention about the last you mention about heavy two years ago against that especial rate to unique tech claims in nearly every department of our civic government was bold, courageous, and fight valiantly carried out.

We have a changed city, and thanks to you is due from a very thoughtful, responsible citizen. You have created quite our aldermanic board a more considerate and less consumptious atmosphere. To you and the tenacious ones with whom you held to that shameless claim mostly the great victories of the past two years, you are still engaged against the senseless wastefulness and extravagance has not entirely been eliminated, incompetency is still among the large waste, and personal interests are yet at work contrary to the public weal.

Mr. Editor, can it be true that to one organization alone the city is committed to the expenditure of five thousand dollars yearly, that but for the effectiveness of the organization a sum astoundingly higher might have been our commitment, and that this one society has permission to call from the public by public solicitation an equal amount, or as much more as they can beg? And this at a moment when able-bodied distress is so almost unknown in our city as of old. And in face of this maiming condition of things, at yesterday's council meeting, pleading, silent or pitiful appeals were heard from other institutions, for food and fuel, that hospitals and sick women and children may be kept from starving? Mr. Editor, can it be true that neither the Board of Public Welfare nor the Salvation Army have a rescue home for women frailty and wrecked humanity in the city of Edmonton, and that, apart from the Roman Catholic attention the Beulah Mission and the Church of God for all Nations are the only institutions providing such shelter and who possess such equipment?

And yet one receives a mere one hundred dollars a month, one other not a dollar for the great work they are doing, and the third, though established more than eight years, with building of modern construction, received in all these years but a mere twenty-five dollars to help pay the water and light bills.

Mr. Editor, can it be true as contained in the appeal to the council by the committee of the Church of God, that our city council ordered the Board of Public Welfare to attend to their immediate wants, and several weeks passed before any visit was made, and several more weeks passed before that body intimated they could not, or would not, subscribe to any other institution's wants?

Can it be possible that in our (incomplete) year, more than three thousand dollars was expended in salaries and work within the circumscribed area of our city limits by one organization alone, whilst some other societies, longer in operation, are already at the point of closing their doors because to the cry of suffering inmates there is no succor.

If the motive of gentlemen favoring the Board of Public Welfare, was, primarily, to focus into one central organization all means of help to human derelicts, those efforts have achieved special failure, resulting only in creating an incubus of greater civic responsibility, a new pay sheet for salaries incredible, with an attempt at decent burial of hundred societies, some of whom never did receive a dollar for personal sacrifice.

Mr. Editor there is a need of investigation not for criminal offense, but on grounds of humanity that needs must be stopped, and waste stopped. Yours truly,

CONCERNED.

Current Comment

Toronto Daily Star: Prime Minister Hughes of Australia announces the raising of another 50,000 men to be enlisted by the first of June bringing Australia's forces for overseas service up to 300,000 by that date.

Calgary Albertan: Sir Sam Hughes declares that there is a sad dearth of good officers in the Canadian forces, which is surprising, considering the circumstances. It is surprising that the army will not accept the services of some able and experienced officers who have seen service and are anxious to go to the front.

Toronto Evening Telegram: Villa will have to import Old Glory in large quantities if every American murdered by agents of that Mexican miscreant is to fulfill in the circumstances of his burial, the aspirations of the song:

"Wrap me up in the Stars and stripes,
And bury me under the eagle."

Toronto Daily Star: There is always something perverse and unpractical about the News. It wrecked a military muster roll when there was lots of politics and no war, and now that there is lots of war and no politics the whole interest is in elections and voters' lists. Through some curious twist of the mind the News thinks of nothing but politics in war time.

London Daily Express: The force which Sir Horace Smith-Dorrien will command will be largely composed of men who have seen service in the campaigns against which he fought fifteen years ago. That is the way of the British Empire. That must be its way if it is to endure. Difference disappear in face of a common danger. The British Empire means liberty, and all its peoples rush to arms when their liberty is threatened.

Montreal Daily Star: A prominent hyphenate in the United States denounces Britain for starving German millions. "There is no more pitiful cry," he says, "than that of a baby asking for food." And yet the pitiful crying of the babies on the sinking Lusitania left this man quite cheerful. He forgets also that if there are any babies starving in Germany, the Kaiser has in his power to remove the cause in short order, while the captain of the Lusitania had no chance to save a precious freight.

Winnipeg Tribune: Shortly after taking office Premier Norris of this province by announcing that the graft connection with the erection of the Agricultural College building would amount to the colossal figure of $400,000, under the direction of Hon. Edward Brown, a very complete appraisal has been made of the building at St. Vital, revealing the fact that about $1,000,000 too much was paid for them. The Canadian Appraisal Company, of Montreal, vouches for the accuracy of the estimate.

Toronto Daily Star—There are indications that Britain's desire for the friendship of neutrals is now eclipsed by Britain's anxiety to win the war. Germany has plunged along on the "win the war" line for some time, not without practical results. Of course, no Briton wants the army or navy to operate on the "frightfulness" plan, but this is not a time with a mortal foe, in which applause from the bleachers is part of the prize. It is desperate struggle in a dark alley with a thug who has no scruples. And that makes a difference.

Victoria Daily Times: The disclosures before Mr. Justice Duff yesterday in connection with the Dominion Trust liquidation revealed an astonishing state of affairs. The statement that the cost of winding up the trust company aggregated $150,000 to date, exclusive of the cost of liquidating the various subsidiary concerns, exposes the disastrous effects of vultures feasting on the dead. The bill submitted by the auditors for the Dominion Trust alone was $41,000, which is to be amplified by the account for auditing one of the offshoots of that partial institution. The auditors also acted as agents for supplying accountants and stenographers for the liquidation, upon which they received a substantial commission. Accountants were given $25 to $15 per day, some of them for doing work that could have been done by any moderately paid office hand. The stenographers received $5 per day. A law firm submitted a bill for $24,157, covering the period from January 1st to September 30, 1915. The management expenses of the Dominion Trust in its most brilliant rainbow-days could not have been more elaborate. And the process of liquidation goes merrily but indeterminately along.

Suffered No End of Pain FROM BACKACHES.

If a pain attacks you in the back you should stop and think what it is and what causes it.

If the kidneys are at fault—and in nine cases out of every ten they are—you should attend to them at once, as it is impossible to have a well, strong back unless the kidneys are performing their functions in a proper manner.

Anyone with a bad back should appreciate how to get a good one. It is a very simple matter. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. They regulate the kidneys, and there is no further excuse for any kidney trouble to exist.

Mrs. E. J. Graves, Oshawa, Ont., writes: "My complaint lies with my kidneys. I have suffered from the pain with them, and with backaches. I had tried everything, so I thought, until a friend loaned me to try a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. I did try them, and one box helped me fine, so I got another, and now feel that I cannot recommend them too highly to anyone suffering with kidney trouble."

Doan's Kidney Pills are the original kidney pills. Do not accept any substitutes put up under similar names. Always see that our trade mark "The Maple Leaf" appears on the label and wrapper.

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c per box, 3 boxes for $1.25; at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A CANADIAN TO HIS PARENTS.

Mother and Dad, I understand
At last why you've forever been
Telling me how that way-off land
Of yours was Home, for since I've seen
The place that up to now was just a name
I feel the same.

The college green, the village hall,
St. Paul's the Abbey, how could I
Spell out your meaning, I whose all
Was peaks that pricked a sundown sky
And endless prairie lands that stretched below
Their pathless snow?

But now I've trodden magic stairs
Age-rounded in a Norman fane,
Heat time to bells that trembled prayers
Down spanky banks of country lane
Throbbed with the universal heart that beat
In London streets,

I'd heard of world-old chains that bind
So tight that she can scarcely stir,
Till tired Old England drops behind
Live nations more awake than her,
Like sun out West, I thought it all was true
Before I knew.

But England's sure what she's about,
And moves along in time with the rest
Too big and set for brag and shout,
And so I never might have guessed
All that she means unless I'd watched her ways
In these battle days.

And now I've seen what makes me proud
Our chaps have proved a soldier's right,
To England; glad that I'm allowed
My bit with her in hell and fight;
And since I'm come to join them Over There
I claim my share.

—Punch.

With the Humorists

The Author—Did you read the manuscript of my novel?

The Editor—Yep!

The Author—Of course—er—you don't expect it to set the river afire, but—

The Editor—I should say not. It didn't even warm up the stove.

A man entered a grocery store and ordered some eggs.

"That man always buys fresh eggs," whispered a small egg, peeping out from the depths of the basket.

"Huh!" scoffed the big egg on top, "yuh can't tell me nuthin' I wasn't said yesterday."—Judge.

An old Cheshire woman called to her lord and master: "Jabez! Will t' oom t' tha baggin'?"

"Baggin' in Cheshire means dinner.

"What's use? An canna ha' my old weskut."

"Well, it's warm enough. Tha can eyt w'out th' old weskut."

"Nay; that Ah canna. Ah've left my false teeth i' tha weskut."

"Then tha'll ha' to starve. Ah gave tha' weskut to t' ragman this morning."

Owing to the war a wealthy Boston man deprived of his summer trip to Europe, went to the Panama-Pacific in its stead. Stopping off at Salt Lake City he strolled about the city and made the acquaintance of a little Mormon girl.

"I'm from Boston," he said to her. "I suppose you don't know where Boston is?"

"Why, yes I do," answered the little girl eagerly. "Our Sunday school has a missionary there."

Not all city folks are as ignorant of the farmers' surroundings as the farmers sometimes suppose. This was evidenced by an incident in the stay of a young New Yorker on a New England farm.

"Well, young man," said the farmer to the city boarder, who was up early and looking around, "been out to hear the hayrock crow, I suppose. And the sly old chap winked at his hired man.

The city man smiled. "No" said he suavely. "I've merely been out trying a knot in a cord of wood."

The following should be appreciated by our friend the angler, who must be weary of having his statements doubted.

At the monthly meeting of a certain homing society one of the members related an interesting experience. He had, he said, recently sold a couple of squeakers—very young pigeons—to a man whose cote was 26c miles away. He sent them off before the usual interval, offering them back in the old cote a couple of days later.

There was a painful silence, broken at length by the president's "Wonderful."

"You doubt my word?" demanded the narrator of the story.

"Not a bit of it!" was the reply. "It's a strange coincidence, that's all. I sold the very same man a setting of eggs in the middle of June. Before the end of the month those birds had come back and had flown home to me! Homing instinct's a wonderful thing!"

BLUE RIBBON TEA

The lead packet for tea is a device as old as the hills.

Improvements were bound to come.

The largest Tea concerns in the world have adopted a new method of packing tea—unapproached for cleanliness and absolute protection against any conceivable climatic condition.

The new packet is a double wrapper. An inner packet of moisture-proof parchment—an outer cartridge paper prevents the slightest possibility of deterioration.

A perfect tea deserves a perfect wrapping, so in future the new wrapper will be used on every packet of

TWO CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH

Father Hurried Home When He Saw Fire, But Was Not in Time

WINNIPEG, Jan. 19. — Tearing across the prairie toward his shanty home, William Tamnouth failed to reach it in time to save his two small children, who were burned to death in the fire which destroyed the home Saturday morning. Tamnouth, whose wife was in a Winnipeg hospital, left the two youngsters aged three and five respectively, in the house, which is near Lake St. Gomint, and went to a neighbor's, over a mile distant, to get milk for them. In his absence, a fire started, presumably from the heater, and on his way back Tamnouth was startled to see the house ablaze. His frantic efforts to rescue the children were in vain, he staggered up to find it a fiery ruin, in which his children had been incinerated.

Stomach Was Bad.

Could Eat Hardly Anything.

When the stomach gets out of order the whole system seems to become affected in one way or an other. The breath becomes foul, the tongue furred, the appetite becomes disturbed, nausea and vomiting occur, there is a rising and souring of food caused by the acidity of the stomach, and the stomach and bowels become distended causing flatulency. Unless these symptoms will be met immediately, dyspepsia or some other serious trouble is liable to follow as a consequence.

That grand old remedy, Burdock Blood Bitters, has been on the market for the past forty years, and we defy anyone to any fear of contradiction, that there is no better medicine on the market to-day that can compare with it for the cure of all disturbances of the stomach.

Miss Lillian E. Phillips, Plumwescop, N.B., writes: "My stomach was so bad I was in pain and misery. I could eat hardly anything. I had been treated by skillful doctors for it but they relieved me not. I was giving up in despair when I happened to hear of Burdock Blood Bitters. You can't think how fast it helped me, for I had only taken two bottles before I was better. I will recommend your medicine very highly to all my friends and sufferers."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

Winnipeg, Jan. 20.—The Winnipeg market opened 1-4 to 1-2 lower this morning, following the usual break after a high mark. May opened 128 to 128 1-4, and July 127 7-8. Oats dropped 1-8, selling at 50 1-4, and May dropped 1-8 to 49 7-8.

Minneapolis dropped 1 cent, with May at 129 1-2 and July 126 3-8. Chicago was 1-8 to 3-8 lower, with May 129 3-4 and July 122 3-4.

The market opened with larger export sales, which sent the prices up until May wheat was selling at 129. Offers were mixed, but sentiment was very bullish. Another increase in looked for on the local market.

Inspections yesterday numbered 382 cars and 400 were in sight today. Minneapolis, Chicago and Duluth passed 494 cars.

May closed 1-8 down, after selling 1 1-2 higher than yesterday's close. The early advance was due to buying by the export houses, and the final break to weakness on the American side, where the bears seem to be getting strength. American markets closed as follows: Chicago 3-8 to 1 1-4 lower and Minneapolis 5-8 to 1 7-8 lower.

Cash wheat was in good demand for all grades but No. 1 Northern, and prices were slightly higher. Cash barley was a feature, closing 3 1-2 higher on good buying by one or two houses.

Rumors of oat sales could not be confirmed, and the narrow fluctuations on the prices did not indicate big business.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—Lower freight rates from Argentina gave an advantage today to the bears in wheat. In this connection notice was taken of a word that the French government had perfected arrangements for an increased number of grain carrying vessels, and that, in consequence of this, a more liberal movement of grain from Argentina and Australia was expected. Seaboard buying developed here, however, when prices declined. The opening, which ranged from 1-2 to 1 1-4 lower, with May at 129 to 129 3-4, and July at 122 1-2 to 122, was followed by a slight rally.

Oats like corn, felt the bearish influence of the prospective larger arrivals. Commission houses hurried to the selling side.

After the market showed an advance as a result of signs of revived export demand and because of the higher quotations from Liverpool. New upturns in cereals freight rates, however, led to a subsequent reaction. The close was weak, 7-8 to 1 to 1 1-8 net lower, with May at 129 1-8 and July at 122 1-2 to 5-8.

THEATRES AND MUSIC

EMPIRE VAUDEVILLE IS GOOD OFFERING

The vaudeville bill for the last half of the current week at the Empire is the best offering presenting locally on the W.V.M.A. circuit. All four vaudeville acts are evenly balanced, and it is hard to single out a headliner. If anything, the Stroud Trio, with Baby Violet doing the work of a full grown act, was the most pleasing feature on yesterday afternoon, while the team of Bolger and Green was a splendid offering consisting of young dances and patter.

The Stroud trio—father, mother and daughter—have a musical act entitled "A Day in Songland" that is replete with action. All three have pleasing voices, and Baby Violet seems especially fitted for a younger of her age. Mrs. Stroud is a pianist of exceptional merit and showed to advantage in her one instrumental selection yesterday afternoon. Baby Violet has a strong and well-trained voice and also possesses the charm of a born comedienne.

The crook play, "Outwitted," is presented by Victorson and Forrest. It deals with the attempt of a discredited politician to stay our proceedings about to be instituted by the district attorney. The crook is baffled by the lawyer's wife who uses a revolver, dictaphone, kodak and other stage appurtenances to further her end. The production holds the attention of the audience until the final curtain.

LeClair and Sampson, billed as "Merry Makers of Merit. Men in the World," have an act that is no stranger to local playgoers but what possesses sufficient delicacies to bear repetition. The illusion is carried out in a novel manner by the strong man stunts grow so superhuman that even the most dense awakens to the fact that something more than human brawn is being utilized.

EXTEND DREAMLAND VISIT OF CHAPLIN.

Charlie Chaplin's new comedy "A Night in the Show" is so good and very funny that everybody wants to see it. Consequently, hundreds of people were unable to gain admittance to the Dreamland any night this week so far. Therefore, it will continue to be the headline feature for the balance of the week, that is, today and tomorrow. The balance of the program will be entirely changed. Miss Helen Holmes will appear as usual in her latest railroad drama, the title of which is "A Girls Grit," and is well up to the high standard of the Kalem Company, which have the reputation of producing genuine railroad dramas. The latest episode has also arrived, and will be a feature on the program.

SPLENDID BILL AT EMPIRE THEATRE.

Beginning the first half of next week at the Empire another very pleasing bill is promised. The Westman family have a domestic comedy entitled "The Troubles of Joy," and as presented by this talented family of performers, will surely meet with approval. Harrington and Florence will be seen in a novel singing and talking act that creates roars of laughter. Dick Ferguson, said to be the greatest eccentric cancer in vaudeville, is always a drawing card on any bill, and will come to his international reputation as an entertainer. The Thomas trio are comedy acrobats, who are exceptionally clever in their line of work, and with four reels of first run motion pictures the bill is one the management have every confidence in presenting for approval of their patrons. After the matinee performance today Baby Violet will hold a children's reception.

FROM TRENCH TO TRENCH AT MONARCH TODAY

"Chimmie Fadden Out West" is the title of the second of a notable series of stories now running on the screen at the Monarch Theatre, with Victor Moore in the title part.

Some interesting films occurred during the filming of this notable photoplay, not the least of which was the delay of three days at the Lasky studios on account of the loss of Mr. Moore's clothing and his white striped sweater. This startling garment was prominently displayed in the first chapters of the production, and was essential to the contemplated series.

When Mr. Moore completed the drama "Chimmie Fadden" picture, he found the productions were considered at that time, so the star camly wiped his hands on the garment and flung it in the corner of his dressing room before starting East. The Japanese boy who cleans the dressing rooms, consigned the sweater to the scrap pile, from whence it was rescued by the wardrobe woman to taken to the wardrobe department, to be used as a dust cloth. After it had about lived its usefulness in that capacity, it was found consistent to a worn basket, this time in the wardrobe department, where it was finally discovered after a search throughout the entire studio had been made by Mr. Moore.

On the same program with "Chimmie Fadden Out West" is a realistic war drama, "From Trench to Trench," which is the last word in war pictures. It shows how troops capture, and then overthrow after heavy fire, and provides all too brief glimpses of the battle.

PANTAGES VAUDEVILLE PLEASES THE FANS.

The excellent bill of vaudeville being shown at the Pantages theatre during the current week will come to the end of its run without continuous performance on Saturday night, from 7:30 to 11 o'clock. The program has been pronounced by local critics to be one of the best seen in Edmonton in many months, and it will be a wealth of variety sufficient to please the most hardened vaudeville patron, but also all of the curse being of the "big time" class. Headline honors go to William Brandell and Co., in songs and dancing beauties in "The Bachelor's Sweetheart," a new and novelty act musical comedy, while Will J. Ward and his Five Girls almost nosed out the honors for the first place with his splendid musical diversion in which five pianos are used on the stage at one time. The cards for the Saturday evening performance, which commences at two shows, starting at 7:30 and 9:15, will be reserved until 8 o'clock, after which time the patrons will be allowed to occupy any vacant seat. Another good bill is promised for next week, starting Sunday afternoon, with a quick and span musical tabloid to be the main attraction. "The Boarding School Girls" is the name of the turn, and the cast includes, in addition to Miss Tommy Allen, a charming comedienne, many lively chorus girls and a "Gibson Girl of the 20th century. "The Misery of a Handsom Cab," with Al Fields and Company, will be the second feature of the bill. Other acts will include Fletcher Morgan and Mae Earl, Reid and Wood and Cooke and Rothert.

100,000 OF DERBY'S RECRUITS FORMALLY CALLED TO COLORS

London, Jan. 20—Groups 2, 3, 4 and 5 of recruits enlisted under the Earl of Derby's plan were formally called to the colors today in accordance with a proclamation of December 7. These groups, the first Derby recruits to be called out, are composed of unmarried men from 18 to 22 years old.

To prevent congestion, at the recruiting offices, and to cause the smallest possible inconvenience to the men, only the first drafts will actually begin training at once. The others will be summoned on succeeding days.

The number of the men in the first three groups, after subtracting exemptions and postponements of service, is estimated, roughly, at 100,000.

WHAT IS WRONG? IS THE GENERAL BRITISH QUERY

Have Men, Ships, Money, and Ability, But Making no Progress

GREATER UNITY OF CONTROL SUGGESTED

Dissipation of Strength in Secondary Theatre of War Objected to London, Jan. 20.—Montenegro's reported surrender has considerably heightened the discontent with which the progress of the war is regarded in England. The first tendency was to blame Italy for her inaction, but it soon became evident that the allies generally, and not Italy individually, were responsible. In some well-informed quarters, indeed, it is held that had Italy's advice been followed by other members of the entente, Montenegro would not have suffered so badly.

War Council Not Satisfactory.

The first proposals for a general war council of the allies came from Italy. The Italian suggestions were worked out slowly, and even yet have not been set on a satisfactory basis. Such consultations as that now being held in London between British and French ministers are only a step in the desired direction. The Italian general staff has been consistently opposed to dissipation of the allied strength in expeditions to secondary (really successful—namely, the Italian expedition to Persia, and its entire success is largely dependent on the results achieved by the British forces in Mesopotamia.

"What is wrong?" is the general question. A year ago everybody expected as the Manchester Guardian says, that, "if we could only survive the first six months of the war without irretrievable disaster we could begin to draw away in the second six months." Instead, we have fallen behind. Some blame for this state of things is to be put on the geographical position of the central alliance, which is exceedingly strong and gives the enemy the great advantage of what are known as interior lines, but the greater part of the blame is on ourselves, and not on nature.

Making No Progress.

"The central powers, since the early defeats of Austria, which almost brought her to her knees, are in effect one, Germany. We remain four, great at different points of the circumference, with different angles of vision, and though all are inspired with the same determination to win, we have a different philosophy of politics and no accepted formula of a war policy to which all yield with unhesitating obedience. In no spirit of arrogance we may claim to have the men, the ships and the money, and, for that matter, the ability, too, and yet we do not make progress.

Greater unity of control is declared to be the remedy. A supreme war council embracing the representatives of all the allies, such as Italy suggested, may be impossible, but it is advanced as an alternative plan that much could be accomplished by holding certain consulates to definite centres and arranging for continental representation at each centre. Thus the direction of the western campaign would be in Paris, in the hands of a small but representative Anglo-French staff, the close touch through London with Petrograd and Rome, and the campaign in the Balkans could be run by a similar committee in permanent session in Egypt or some other central position. It would be easier than to make arrangements for general information at the disposal of each, and co-ordinate stategy and diplomacy.

WOMEN CANNOT VOTE ON MANITOBA PROHIBITION BILL

So Says Premier Norris, Who Also Declines to Close Bars Forthwith

Winnipeg, Jan. 20—Premier Norris this morning assured a deputation from the executive committee of the Manitoba Grain Growers' Association that it would not be possible for the government to accede to their request that women be permitted to vote on the prohibition bill in March. The premier said that to allow women to vote would mean the making of new lists, the postponement of the voting day and the consequent entering upon a new license year. He also declined to close the bars of the province forthwith by government legislation, declaring that pending a definite settlement of the liquor question by the forthcoming plebiscite no drastic action should be taken by the government.

The deputation also asked for a system of agricultural results. Mr. Norris replied that the time was not opportune.

CANADA'S 1915 CROPS WORTH $800,000,000

Statistics of Principal Grain Crops Given Out by Government

Ottawa, Jan. 20.—The principal grain crops of Canada during 1915 showed the most abundant yield in the history of the Dominion, according to an announcement of the census and statistics office here. The increased yield in wheat and oats, it was said, was due to expansion of the acreage by special effort as a result of the European war, as well as an exceptionally favorable season.

The total value of the field crops in 1915 amounted to approximately $800,000,000, comprising grain $568,161,000; potatoes and sugar beets $30,720,000, and fodder crops $193,768,100.

Total yields in bushels for 1915, as compared with 1914 were as follows:

Wheat—376,402,000, as against 161,280,000.

Oats—520,103,000, as against 313,073,000.

Barley—58,331,300 as against 32,201,000.

Rye—2,990,100, as against 2,015,800.

Peas—3,478,850, as against 3,362,400.

Corn for husking—14,368,000, as against 13,924,000.

The quality of the crops, it was said, was superior to 1914 and also superior to the average of the last five years.

The total values were: Wheat, $312,569,400; oats, $176,894,700; barley, $26,704,700; rye, $1,899,900; peas, $3,486,000; beans, $2,204,900; buckwheat, $5,913,000; flax seed, $13,965,000; mixed grains, $16,024,700; corn for husking, $10,243,000.

In the northwest provinces of Manitoba Saskatchewan and Alberta the production of wheat in 1915 is estimated at 242,918,000 bushels, compared with 140,958,000 bushels in 1914; oats, 334,446,000 bushels, against 150,843,000; barley, 41,317,200 bushels as against 19,535,000, and flax, 10,559,000, as against 7,933,000.

U. F. A. REFUSES TO BACK PACKING PLANT PROPOSAL

And Also Declines to Condemn Military Training in Public Schools.

Calgary, Jan. 20.—Questions of legislation occupied this morning's session of the United Farmers of Alberta convention to some extent, and after a debate a resolution was adopted calling on the executive to introduce a referendum, initiative and recall bill under an initiative petition, if a satisfactory act could be obtained from the next meeting of parliament.

A resolution favoring the establishment of an act to establish proportional representation was also adopted.

The election of vice-presidents occupied considerable time, but finally W. D. Trego was chosen as 1st vice-president; S. S. Dunham, 2nd vice-president; Rice Sheppard, 3rd vice-president.

Although the opinion of the meeting was evidently divided, a resolution condemning military training in the schools as barbarous and unbecoming to a civilized people was tabled. It was believed that this was not the time to discuss such a motion.

There was considerable discussions on the matter of increasing the fees of the United Farmers, and it was decided to appoint a committee to consider ways and means of obtaining more money. A resolution doubling the membership fee of the association was, however, tabled.

On Friday, the report of the pork packing committee was referred back to the committee, with a request to bring in a resolution. This morning the committee reported that they did not think the time opportune to make any recommendation for a immediate plan for a plant. The meeting showed no inclination to discuss the question, a motion adopting the report was carried without delay.

BRITISH AEROPLANES OUTCLASSED BY NEW HUN BATTLEPLANES

Daily Mail Claims That Thirteen British Aircraft Brought Down Recently

London, Jan. 20.—"British flying men are out-gunned and out-powered by the new German Fokker battleplanes," says the Daily Mail today.

The French authorities concede that the latest type of the Fokker is more powerful than the latest French Nieuport or Morane machines. The Fokker is a monoplane with a 200-horse power engine. The German official commission claim that this type of machine has brought down thirteen British aircraft during the past month.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK FEVERISH CHILD

If little stomach is sour, liver torpid or bowels clogged.

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not leave the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, red in tongue and coated, then give this delicious "Fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can not cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, or member, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a genuine bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hold back with contempt any other fig syrup.

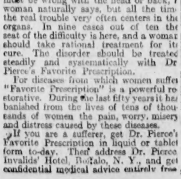
GIVES 100 SACKS FLOUR IN AID OF BELGIAN RELIEF

J. C. C. Bremner's Patriotic Example—Asks Others to Complete Carload.

J. C. C. Bremner of Bremner P.O. in the Central Alberta's most successful farming district, has given a beautiful and speedily equipped 640 acre farm some fifteen miles east of Edmonton, has demonstrated in a very practical manner his willingness to share his prosperity with others who are less fortunately situated. Mr. Bremner a few years ago threshed a crop of wheat which yielded not far from 60 bushels to the acre. He has devised a Belgian Relief Fund for the Northern Alberta branch of the Belgian Relief Fund, and has asked others to contribute one hundred 98-pound sacks of flour from this wheat for Belgian relief purposes, promising to turn in the additional 310 sacks required to complete a carload.

As most of the farmers in Mr. Bremner's neighborhood and at Port Saskatchewan have enjoyed an exceedingly prosperous season it is expected that the other 310 sacks will be readily forthcoming, now that Mr. Bremner has set such an excellent example. Mr. Bremner's wheat will be converted into flour at the new mill which has recently commenced operations at Port Saskatchewan, and the flour will be loaded at that point and other deliveries made there. Special packing of this flour is required for export.

Mr. Fisher, at the office of the Edmonton Board of Trade, phone 1711, will be find to hear from a few others who will join Mr. Bremner in the completion of the carload.



Of all overworked women probably the housewife is the hardest worked. She has so much to attend to, with very little help. Her work can be lightened if she knows the value of system and she should try and take a short rest in the daytime. A physician who became famous almost around the world, Doctor Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., the specialist in woman's diseases, for many years practiced medicine in a farming district. He there observed the lack of system in the planning of the work.

If it is a headache, a backache, a sensation of irritability or twinching and uncontrollable nervousness, something must be wrong with the head or back; a woman naturally says, but all the time the real trouble very often centers in the organs. In nine cases out of ten the seat of the difficulty is here, and a woman should take tried and tested remedy for cure. The disorder should be treated steadily and systematically with Dr Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

For diseases from which women suffer "Favorite Prescription" is a powerful restorative. During the last fifty years it has banished from the lives of tens of thousands of women the pain, worry, misery and distress caused by these diseases.
